Course description:

This course aims at introducing students to the language of the media, communication, and visual culture and widen their vocabulary in the field. During the course, we are going to discuss topics and highlight technical terms related to printed press, online press, TV, online streaming platforms, commercials, series, cinema, social media, and related issues, such as censorship and the impact of media on people.

Students attending this course must understand that NO MORE THAN THREE MISSED CLASSES are allowed, including illnesses, accidents, personal and family problems, etc.

The final seminar mark will be based on participation in classroom activities and discussions (25%), a 15-minute PPT presentation on a preconcerted topic (25%), the result of a mid-term test (25%), an end-term test (25%). The PPT and the notes of the presentation have to be sent to the instructor no later than the day of the presentation.
