Course Description:

Hungary is a player in the modern international System. The changes affected his development trajectory. The modern age presented many challenges for Hungarians and Hungary. By the 20th century, several historical events had affected the lives of the people of Central Europe. We present the most important nodes of this, good and less acceptable answers. The mentality and identity of the people living here have been shaped by history, we present the most characteristic social indicators, the main reasons and actors of the results. At the same time, we cannot avoid the most important challenges of the 21st century, their impact on Hungarians, showing the attitude of the present man to solving global and individual problems.
