Course Description:

The aim of the Language Practice course is to improve students' general English language proficiency in three of the language skills: listening, speaking and reading. These skills are developed in preparation for the complex language exam. Language development is based on Units 6-10 of the compulsory course book: Mitchell, H. Q. & Malkogianni, M. (2017). Pioneer. C1-C1+. Oxford: OUP. (student's book, workbook, mp3).

Requirements: weekly attendance (six absences are allowed altogether); using the original version of the course materials (no pdf allowed); two in-class progress tests (30-30% of the grade), three in-class short quizzes (10-10-10%), active participation (10%). Two quizzes can be re-written once, on the last day, unlike tests.

Active participation comprises the following: coming to class on time fully prepared, equipped with the necessary materials; using class time effectively.
