

ALADÁR SZILASSY LIBRARY MISSION STATEMENT

In connection with other Hungarian libraries' missions, Aladár Szilassy Library draws up its own Mission Statement as follows. The Library:

- Wants to promote the high quality of the Faculty's studies and research through providing free and unrestricted access to national and international knowledge and information.
- Helps students to obtain a degree with internationally accepted knowledge.
- Supports the University to provide high quality in the fields of education, research and development activities.
- For the sake of completeness, collects and archives the Faculty's publications.
- Registers, catalogues, protects and monitors frequently its stack according to law and the regulations of the Library.
- Motivates users to achieve skills that are necessary to independent bibliographical orientation through user trainings.
- Acts up to Aladár Szilassy's principles, always wants to be a guide in the mentally enrichment of the growing youth.

16 June 2022, Budapest