Their passion for teaching can be seen both inside and outside the classroom. The SSOL faculty is indeed one-of-a-kind community of scholars who take pride in educating the future of the profession with values, accountability, and integrity. At SSOL, law is considered as more than just a career choice. It's a profound force for promoting justice in the world. Each student is prepared to be a unique professional demonstrating the practice of law as service to the society and facilitating the cause of social justice.

About Conference

The Conference on Conceptualizing Legal Frameworks and Policies for Domestic Animal and Wildlife Conservation: Issues and Challenges serves as an essential platform for discussing the crucial role of legal and policy frameworks in the conservation of wildlife and domestic animals. The conference brings together experts, policymakers, environmentalists, and stakeholders from across the globe to examine critical issues and identify actionable solutions for the sustainable conservation of biodiversity.

Objectives

1. Examine international, regional, and national legal frameworks governing animal and wildlife conservation.
2. To explore the role of emerging technologies in driving sustainable solutions for environmental, social, and economic challenges.
3. Analyze the role of treaties, agreements, and conventions in promoting wildlife protection.
4. Discuss challenges in implementing and enforcing conservation laws.
5. Evaluate the impact of illegal wildlife trade, habitat destruction, and human-wildlife conflict on conservation efforts.
6. Explore policy solutions for sustainable conservation and biodiversity protection.
7. Develop actionable recommendations for strengthening legal frameworks and policies.
