

Rector's Order No. 5/2023 (V.11)
on exemption from language examination requirements for graduates in the academic year 2022/2023

Upon the authorization provided for in Article 62 (1) of the Organizational and Operational Rules of Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church in Hungary (hereinafter referred to as the University) and in accordance with Article 114/O of Act CCIV of 2011 on national higher education, I hereby issue the following order in relation to the language examination requirements previously prescribed for the award of diplomas to students graduating in the academic year 2022/2023:

1 § The diploma shall be issued to any student who has obtained the pre-degree certificate (Absolutorium) and passed the final examination in any study programme of the University in the academic year 2022/2023, provided that the student fulfils the other conditions for the award of the diploma, apart from the language examination requirement.

2 § This order shall enter into force upon publication on the University's website on 12 May 2023.

Budapest, 11 May 2023.
