Objectives and training program - The Summer School, organized by the Department of Psychology, Educational Science and Human Movement, continues the conversation on displaced lives and vulnerability in the Euro-Mediterranean area, through various practical activities and theoretical lectures, focused on the refugees/forced migrants at the EU borders and the challenges of human trafficking and modern slavery forms. The life narratives of the refugees and displaced population, experiences of NGOs will be an essential part of the five intensive-studying days of the program. By access to the situation on the ground, the participants will have a unique opportunity to grasp the lives of refugees and displaced population as multisided prospectus of different levels.

Activities - Lectures, workshops, guided visits and Q&A discussion will be held from Monday to Friday, with compulsory attendance (90%) in presence. In addition, you will visit artistic and monumental sites. At the end of the course, attendees will be given an official certificate (6 ECTS). The language will be English but some activities might be in Italian with a direct English translation.

Fee: The registration fee (€ 600) provides academic program, didactic material, conference kit, coffee breaks, lunches (not included on Wednesday and Saturday); travel and accommodation costs are not included.

How to apply: Download the application form (migrationsummerschool.com) and send it by May 1 to summermigrantiunipa@gmail.com.
